

Enrollment outside of Degree Sought

Students who are pursuing one degree but seek enrollment in another graduate level program should contact the Graduate Studies Office or Program Advisor, as specific permission may be needed for enrollment. UW Green Bay has collaborative graduate programs of study in Applied Biotechnology, Data Science, Health and Wellness Management, and Sustainable Management. A permission number is needed for enrollment and tuition and fees will differ because of the collaboration of several UW System institutions.